Trustee Reports

Trustee Parisian – Nothing to report

Trustee Zink – Waterfront Advisory Committee meeting coming up. Attend the Farmer’s Market was a great turn out. No Planning Board meeting since our last meeting.

Trustee Hackett – The Harvester is a go. The relining at the bridge and Finger St extension. Meet with Dennis Larios to be the Engineer for the Wastewater, first step for the goal of the upgrades.

Trustee Hackett received his tax bill, he has spoken with the Mayor about getting some kind of tax break for the seniors, long time residence. Looking for input to discuss. Mayor said there is an area that is a tax freeze on property owner’s that have over 30 plus years. Trustee Parisian stated that the largest amount of the taxes comes from School taxes. Mayor said they would not be giving back, charging newer residents at different tax rates. Treasurer Kerbert is going to reach out to other areas to see what is being done. Mayor Murphy mortgage rates would have to come down before these ideas move forward.

Trustee Parisian – saw the emails on the complaint of smell, Terry has not smelled, Vince Buono intermittent. Trustee Hackett suggested the Holiday and that once project is completed there won’t be an issue.

Trustee Martin – makes a motion to approve the application to the Saugerties Fire Department from Timothy Agosta, Trustee Zink seconded the motion to approve the application to the Saugerties Fire Department from Timothy Agosta. All in favor, the motion carried unanimously.
